Privilege of the Floor

Mrs. Ginny Swarthout, Spencerport Canal Day Chair addressed the Village Board about the recent press regarding the use of New York State property to conduct a game of chance. Mrs. Swarthout explained that Canal Days does an annual "Canalagator" race where people purchase plastic alligators that are then dumped into the canal for a chance to win prizes. At this time the Erie Canal cannot be used to conduct the event.

Village Attorney Stowe indicated that Mrs. Swarthout will need to apply for a permit from the Town of Ogdon Clerk to conduct the game of chance and that he would confirm that this game of chance can be conducted on municipal owned property.

Mrs. Swarthout added that she has had various canal travelers in her shop from as far as California and as close as Fairport, NY and all of them have indicated how much they enjoy the Village of Spencerport.
