Public Hearing

The application of Ricky J. Chick, 63 Sableridge Ct., Spencerport, New York 14559, for a special permit to allow a second ancillary vehicle parked on property located at same, whereas a maximum of one ancillary vehicle may be stored outside on any residential parcel, pursuant to Chapter 340, Article IX, Section 4(E) and two (2) area variances to allow both ancillary vehicles to be parked in the side setback, whereas an ancillary vehicle cannot be stored within the side setback, pursuant to Chapter 340, Article IX, Section 4 D (1) in a Residential District.

At this time Rick Chick stated his case for the special permit and variance.

At this time Diana Powell Keery closed the Public Hearing.

Diana Powell Keery then asked Building Inspector Smith, Attorney Stowe and the board if they have any comments.

Dale Kellerson stated that he didn't have any issues and that the applicant has the vehicles neatly parked out of view.

Resolution No 269/2015

WHEREAS, the Village of Spencerport Zoning Board of Appeals has before it an application from Ricky J. Chick for an area variance to allow a second ancillary vehicle to be parked in the side/rear setback on property at 63 Sableridge Court, Spencerport, New York 14559, and

WHEREAS, the Village of Spencerport Zoning Board of Appeals has conducted a public hearing this 17th day of September, 2015, and

WHEREAS, the Village of Spencerport Zoning Board of Appeals has previously declared this action to be a Type II Action pursuant to the New York State Environmental Quality Review Act,

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that regarding the application of Ricky J. Chick for an area variance at 63 Sableridge Court to allow for a second ancillary vehicle to be parked in the side/rear setback of said property, the Village of Spencerport Zoning Board of Appeals has considered, among other things

1. Whether an undesirable change will be produced in the character of the neighborhood or a detriment to nearby properties will be created by the granting of the area variance;
2. Whether the benefit sought by the applicant can be achieved by some method, feasible for the applicant to pursue, other than an area variance;
3. Whether the requested area variance is substantial;
4. Whether the proposed variance will have an adverse effect or impact on the physical or environmental condition in the neighborhood or district; and
5. Whether the alleged difficulty was self-created

September 17, 2015

AND, the Zoning Board of Appeals of the Village of Spencerport makes the following findings of fact:

1. An undesirable change in the neighborhood will not be produced in the character of the neighborhood or a detriment to nearby properties will not be created by granting the area variance.
2. The benefit sought by the applicant cannot be achieved by some method, feasible for the applicant to pursue other than an area variance.
3. The area variance is not substantial.
4. The proposed variance will not have an adverse effect or impact on the physical or environmental conditions in the neighborhood or district.
5. The alleged difficulty was self-created. However, the fact that the difficulty is self-created is only an issue for consideration and is not solely dispositive in the application.

The Zoning Board of Appeals further determines that the variance requested is the minimum variance necessary and adequate and preserves and protects the character of the neighborhood and the health, safety and welfare of the community; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that based upon the foregoing the application for an area variance is GRANTED.
